

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Write About Graphs of Lines

Not only must mathematicians excel in problem solving, but they must also be able to communicate in the language of mathematics. A person must first understand a concept fully before he or she can hope to explain it to someone else.

Directions: Study the diagram below. Write an explanation comparing and contrasting the seven lines that are shown.

